

Short-term trials, for long-term gain...

Try-It.ie enables professionals and their clients to trial the latest technologies and make informed decisions - supporting independent living and improving quality of life.

Michael Gogarty, NCBI, trialling an electronic magnifier from www.try-it.ie

"Thanks to the try-it loan bank, we have been able to recommend equipment with confidence having trialled it for a sufficient period of time to know that it will be used and of maximum benefit to the service user. It has also prevented inappropriate prescriptions and thus saved the HSE and Department of Education unnecessary expenditure".
